ORIENTATION PACKET

Congratulations on taking the first step to attend the Northeast Institute on Leadership and National Security at Princeton University. This packet contains important information on when to arrive, what to expect and how to prepare for the program. Please read it carefully and email or call us if you have any questions. We look forward to your participation in this unique educational experience.

PLEASE RETURN THE ENCLOSED REGISTRATION FORM BY JULY 1, 2010. Your tuition payment will guarantee your place in the Institute. If you will not be attending, please notify us as soon as possible so that we may offer your space to another interested student.

PROGRAM OVERVIEW

The Institute is an exciting exploration of issues surrounding national security. It begins at Princeton University on Tuesday morning, August 10th, with an orientation on the issues and personalities that dominate national security on a national scale as well as in the Northeast region. During the Institute, you will have an opportunity to meet and question the powerful leaders from politics, government, and the media who make things happen. The program will conclude with a graduation ceremony on the afternoon of Friday, August 13th.

Topics of discussion and debate will center around national security policy with a strong focus on current events. Each evening Institute staff will lead a simulation based around an issue of national security as well as small group discussions on the speakers and topics of the day. These sessions help draw educational lessons from the day's events and prepare students for the next day's speakers. You will also probe the opinions of your peers in lively discussions and debates on current issues in the news.

While the Institute is not heavily academic, most of your day and evening is filled with educational activities. Living and learning with other high school students from throughout the Northeast and around the country, you are certain to make many friends and hear a variety of political perspectives.

TUITION & FUNDRAISING

Please mail your $550 tuition fee and Registration Form to The Junior Statesmen Foundation, NE Institute, 1600 K St NW, Suite 803, Washington, DC, 20006. Checks should be made payable to The Junior Statesmen Foundation. In order to hold your place in the Institute, we must receive these items by July 1, 2010. Tuition is refundable, minus a $50 administrative fee, until two weeks prior to the program.

Institute tuition covers housing at Princeton University, some meals on campus, transportation to and from the program sites, and all academic activities and materials. You will need to buy four lunches during the Institute week. There are inexpensive lunch restaurants at all meeting locations. Some additional spending money is also suggested.

Some students, through their own fundraising efforts, receive partial or full scholarships from local donors. Contributors should send donations to The Junior Statesmen Foundation, 1600 K St NW, Suite 803, Washington, DC, 20006 with an accompanying letter or memo naming the student they are assisting. Checks should be made payable to The Junior Statesmen Foundation. For more information on how to raise money in your community, please read the Junior Statesmen Fundraising Manual, available for download at www.jsa.org.

ARRIVAL & REGISTRATION

Registration will take place on Tuesday, August 10 between 8:00 a.m. and 11:00 a.m. You will be registering in the courtyard of Holder Hall. Visit www.princeton.edu for a campus map.

Students are responsible for arranging their own transportation to Princeton University. Students traveling by adult driven car (or by shuttle from the airport) should arrive at Princeton Tuesday, August 10th between 8:00 a.m. and 11:00 a.m. Students may not drive a car to the Institute or have a car at the Institute - NO EXCEPTIONS! If it is easier for families, students can be dropped off Monday evening, from 6-8pm, at an additional cost of $50. Please include the $50 with your Institute payment.

GRADUATION & DEPARTURE

The Institute will conclude on Friday, August 13 around 3:30 p.m. Parents and family members are invited to attend Graduation, which will take place at 2:00 p.m. Details regarding the ceremony location will be available during registration.

HOUSING

Students will be housed in double, triple, or quad rooms in Holder Hall. Male and female students will be housed in separate areas of the dorm. Institute staff members are housed in the dorm and are responsible for the supervision of students.

Each student will need to provide his/her own linen for an extra long twin bed. Princeton University dorms are not air-conditioned, and we strongly suggest that you bring a fan.

Roommate selection is done in advance and cannot be changed. If you would like to share a room with someone you already know, both students must return the enclosed Roommate Request Form to the Junior Statesmen Foundation Office in Washington, DC by July 1, 2010.

Students will be responsible for leaving their room in the same condition in which they found it and will be charged for any damages that occur. There is a significant replacement charge for lost keys and meal cards.

WHAT TO BRING

You should pack clothing that is appropriate for daily sessions (business attire) and for the Graduation ceremony. When meeting public officials, you should dress as if you were going to a job interview or church or temple event. Jeans, shorts, T-shirts, and tennis shoes are not appropriate attire for meeting with our speakers.

Remember to pack comfortable shoes as we will be doing a good deal of walking. Consider bringing a sweater; the meeting rooms we use are air-conditioned and get very cool. Also, be sure to bring comfortable informal clothing to wear on campus in the evenings. There will be some time for informal recreation during the week (i.e. Frisbee, volleyball) and a social event on Thursday night.

The following list of clothing and other important items will help you get started packing:

Females

business attire
(dress or pant suit, dress slacks & jacket)
blouses, skirts or dresses (knee-length or longer)
dress shoes & nylons
shorts
jeans
t-shirts
underwear
nightgown or pajamas
sandals or tennis shoes
light jacket or sweater

Males

business attire
(suit, dress slacks & sports jacket)
dress shirts & ties
dress shoes & socks
shorts
jeans
t-shirts
pajamas
sandals or tennis shoes
light jacket or sweater

1. A pillow & extra-long twin sheets
2. Hand towels, wash cloths, soap
3. A notebook and pens
4. An alarm clock
5. Key chain (recommended)
6. A fan (recommended)
7. Personal items (toothbrush, toothpaste, deodorant, etc.)
8. An umbrella
9. Hangers
10. A camera (optional)
11. A watch
12. Spending money (for lunches, snacks, and souvenirs)

Students should not bring valuable items to the Institute. While the dormitory has secured entrances, we will be off campus during the day. Neither Princeton University nor The Junior Statesmen Foundation can assume responsibility for your personal belongings.

EXPERIENCE THE JUNIOR STATE OF AMERICA

Throughout the Institute, you will participate in lively discussions and debates on current issues with your peers. These debates are an excellent introduction to the Junior State of America, the largest, student-run political education organization in the country! Founded 75 years ago by high school students, JSA today involves over 15,000 participants across the country.

After attending the Institute, we hope that you will start a JSA chapter at your high school. Typical chapter activities include student debates of controversial issues, bipartisan speakers programs, mock trials, candidate nights, voter registration drives and school-wide assemblies on campus issues. JSA chapters are the center of political activity and awareness in their high schools. Members across the state also meet at three overnight weekend conventions each year. So, come prepared to get the tools you'll need to join the most exciting and political student-run organization in the country!

INSTITUTE RULES

1. Students must abide by all rules established by the Junior Statesmen Foundation, the Institute Director, Princeton University, and all local, state and federal laws.
2. Students must be on their own floor at 10:00 p.m. and may not leave there floor thereafter. There will be a dorm meeting each night at this time when students must check in with their Resident Advisor.
3. Curfew will be at 11:00 p.m., or as announced by the Institute Director. After curfew, students must be in their own rooms either quietly studying or sleeping.
4. No smoking or use of other tobacco products is allowed.
5. The use of alcohol or illegal drugs is not permitted. Students may not use prescription drugs not prescribed for them by a physician. The use of over the counter drugs such as Vivarin or No-Doze is also prohibited.
6. The use of Princeton University facilities is a privilege. Students must conduct themselves in a mature and respectful fashion and must not do anything to damage the reputation of the Junior Statesmen program. Students who recklessly or maliciously damage these facilities, or the property of others, will be held liable, financially responsible and may be subject to expulsion.
7. Harassment, sexual or otherwise, of any student, faculty or staff person will not be permitted.
8. Students must attend all sessions and activities, unless they are ill. If a student is too ill to attend sessions, a staff member must be notified. If necessary, the student will be taken to Princeton Hospital for care.
9. All students are housed by gender. Students are not allowed on the floors, entryways, or in the rooms of members of the opposite sex.

10. General Conduct Rules in the dorm and in other facilities: Students must respect the privacy of their dorm mates. Loud noise will not be tolerated at any time.

11. No wrestling or horseplay will be allowed in the dorm. Students may not throw anything out of their dorm windows. No pranks will be allowed—especially any pranks that may cause damage to rooms or their contents or to the well-being of other students, staff, or faculty. Squirt guns, water balloons, and other water-related toys are not allowed. Shaving cream, mud, toothpaste and food fights are not allowed.

Students may not play with fire extinguishers or fire alarms. If they cause unnecessary discharge of a fire extinguisher or activation of a fire alarm, they will be fined by the University and sent home by the Junior Statesmen Foundation.

12. Students are responsible for keeping their floor and room in good condition. Students will be assessed the cost of any damage or theft.

13. Students may not bring a car or other motor vehicle to campus. Students may not drive a motor vehicle, or ride in a motor vehicle driven by a minor, at any time during the Institute. They may not ride in a motor vehicle driven by an adult without first obtaining the explicit permission of the Institute Director.

14. Students will not be permitted to leave campus without permission. They may not leave with a relative (other than a parent or legal guardian) or any other adult unless written permission is received from their parents or guardian, in advance.

15. Students are not allowed to receive outside visitors without the Director's permission. After registration on the first day, parents of the opposite sex may not enter a student's room or entryway without permission of the Director. Students may not invite visitors into their dorm and may not associate with anyone not officially part of the Junior Statesmen Summer School program. This includes other student groups on campus.

16. Any photographs taken by Princeton University or Junior Statesmen staff and photographers during Institute may be used in future promotional materials.

17. Students are also expected to conform to all other rules as announced by the Director or Assistant Director during the course of the program.

18. Students are expected to give their full attention to guest speakers. If a student is caught using a cell phone or other electronic device during a speakers session, the device may be confiscated for the remainder of the day.

If a student violates the rules, his/her parents or guardian will be notified. If the violation is serious, the student will be sent home immediately with no tuition refund.

Violation of these rules can result in students being sent home without refund and other appropriate action.

VISITORS

Because the Institute is a short, intensive week of politics and government, no visitors are allowed during the week. The only exception is that parents may visit. Parental visits, if necessary, should be limited to a few minutes in the evening and should not conflict with any scheduled event.

WHAT TO DO IN ADVANCE

In the weeks prior to the Institute, you should read articles on national and regional politics in newspapers, news magazines, internet news sites and watch local TV news. Focus specifically on national security issues in your state and any major stories involving the Port Authority, State Police, immigration, security budgeting, etc.

IN CONCLUSION

Get ready for an exciting educational adventure that offers:

- a behind-the-scenes look at the workings of politics and government in action.
- an opportunity to polish your speaking, analytical, and leadership skills so that you can play a more active role in your school and community.
- a front row seat for the deliberations of the executive, legislative and judicial branches of government.
- an opportunity to exchange ideas with powerful leaders.
- a chance to discuss and debate some of the major issues of national security facing our nation and your region with high school students from throughout the Northeast.
- a week experiencing college life.
- an opportunity to make new friends as you experience first-hand the drama, politics and excitement of the world of government and politics.

If you are interested in reviewing a sample daily schedule, please visit the Institute portion of the Junior Statesmen web site, www.jsa.org. While the speakers and topics will vary, the program will be similar to this schedule.

Please don't hesitate to contact the Junior Statesmen Washington, DC office if you have any questions.
